All This in Addition to Day-to-Day Matters.

A man with short dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark lab coat, is focused on working on a complex electronic device. He is using a pair of tweezers to carefully place or adjust a component on a printed circuit board (PCB). The device is densely packed with various electronic components, including capacitors, resistors, and integrated circuits. The background is slightly blurred, showing what appears to be a laboratory or workshop setting. The overall color palette is a warm, muted brown and sepia tone.

Set Up Services

We can also help open new company offices and branches and establish local payroll and accounting services with lower cost, international, English-speaking accounting firms, to take care of payroll, social security filings and other labor obligations for expanding businesses.

US Immigration Service

For entry into one of the world's most important and vibrant markets, we also have a specialized and experienced team to support growing companies and investors in getting the right talent at the right time to the right places – across 50 States.

We Will Get You the Solutions – On Time and On Budget. Anywhere

Central, Regional and Local Coordination Options

In addition to providing central management of global labor problems, we have regional coordinators for every major business center, including Europe, the Nordics, Central and Eastern Europe, Russia/CIS, the Middle East and Africa, the United States, Asia-Pacific, China, India, Australia-New Zealand, and Latin America, so our clients can have a 'one-stop' source in each region as well as a single global one-stop coordinator as they wish.

A local team partner for labor and employment in each of the 95 plus countries we serve ensures you will have a local team leader dedicated to local issues as well as a global contact and a regional team leader as you choose. Each country team is responsible and responsive to the client and to central instructions from the group and to the regional coordinators as needed.

As with all our services, the client can expect a tailor-made solution for legal coverage for labor and employment law. You can use us how you want, where you want, when you want.

One Partner for Your Business Globally, Regionally, Locally – As You Choose

And if we don't cover the country where you want to be, we will find the answers. Indeed, our clients are increasingly relying on us to find solutions even where we are not yet providing services – because finding global solutions IS our job. Which is why we are constantly moving with our clients' businesses into new markets. We are where our clients need us. Everywhere Business Needs to Be®.

Who We Are

Based in London, as the L&E division of Transatlantic Law International, Labor Law Plus is managed by highly experienced international counsel who are dedicated to working with companies from an in-house perspective as an extension of their internal business teams.

By providing advice based on our long experience running the legal aspects of global business and harnessing the abilities of top flight independent firms – and also individual counsel with special expertise where needed – we insure the delivery of partner level service and eliminate costly and unnecessary overheads.

Through central coordination and administration, including billing, we also insure alignment of all our teams through one consistent, client driven service. The flexibility and efficiency of our collaborative cross-border team approach ensures we have the right talent with the right depth and experience for each and every matter. Every time.

Not only do we relieve business of the task of finding and managing competent counsel in multiple locations, we deliver the results by making sure our teams work for you, doing your work as you want it to be done, requiring and applying the highest standards.

Your Standards.

Other Services

Aside from labor and employment law, we also regularly cover the globe in all key areas of business law, including:

Mergers, Acquisitions and Divestments:

Managing and executing phases of the investment or divestment process, including due diligence for buyers/sellers, legal and antitrust clearances, negotiation and execution of transactions.

Corporate Law and Restructuring:

All aspects of corporate law, including corporate reorganizations and downsizing, including managing all aspects of commercial, labor and refinancing.

Commercial Law:

Everything from the day-to-day terms and conditions to complex commercial contracts for cross-border transactions adapted to the laws of countries.

IT/IP Law:

Comprehensive Information Technology (IT) and Intellectual Property (IP) support, including licensing, joint ventures, Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) and bundling agreements, trademark registrations and disputes, marketing issues, software agreements, e-commerce and managing litigation.

Litigation, Corporate Investigations and Litigation Management:

Investigating, organizing and defending legal claims, including negotiating solutions through alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and arbitration.

International Trade and Regulation:

Assessing regulatory requirements on investments and growing businesses, including trade and customs barriers and requirements, making key contacts with government regulators and finding solutions to regulatory roadblocks.

Property Law:

All aspects of global property development, including industrial leases, acquisition of major property sites, financing and developments and termination of long term commitments.

Corporate Recovery:

Collecting corporate debt and assets, including working with receivers, liquidators and trustees.

Market Access and Investment Strategy:

General Counsel Service:

For companies in need of a single source of international business law expertise, we can provide a dedicated international counsel to cover the world from any region as needed for the business.

Project Management:

All-encompassing support for companies wanting special coordination of particular cross-border projects.

And This Is Just Part of What We Do.

Fee Structures and Service Pledge

We are committed to providing cost efficient and flexible fee structures depending on the type of assignment.

And we are committed to beating the market consistently in how we charge because our lower overheads allow us to do so without sacrificing quality or dedication – which is what business today requires.

Our service pledge goes hand in hand with how we cost our services:

- You will always have experienced counsel dedicated to your work.
- We will work to minimize cost and maximize efficiency.
- We deliver results not paperwork.
- We will achieve your objectives with the highest level of integrity.
- And if you are not satisfied, we will not only change the lawyer, we will change the team – something other firms simply cannot do.

To Us Law IS Business. We See Things Your Way.

A group of people, likely a marching band or a protest group, are walking on a city street. They are wearing winter jackets and hats. In the foreground, a man in a brown jacket and cap is holding a large flag. Other people in the background are also carrying flags. The scene is captured in a low-angle shot, looking up at the participants. The overall tone is warm and energetic.
